HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing the efforts of Anitra Donahue in designing the logo for Indiana Freedom Trails.

Whereas, Anitra Donahue grew up in Evansville, Indiana;

Whereas, As a high school student, Anitra enjoyed art and the theater;

Whereas, Upon graduation from high school, Anitra moved to Indianapolis, Indiana, to attend Herron School of Art at Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI), where she received her Bachelor of Fine Arts in August 1998;

Whereas, Since graduation from Herron School of Art, Anitra has created works for both public and private patrons;

Whereas, She is also involved with the Freetown Village 1870, a living history museum dedicated to educating people of all ages about African-American life in post-Civil War Indiana;

Whereas, Anitra found creating the logo for Indiana Freedom Trails very challenging, a challenge that she more than met; and

Whereas, Anitra's talent and compassion for the African-Americans seeking freedom from bondage can readily be seen in Indiana Freedom Trails' logo: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

- 1 SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly wishes to thank
- 2 Anitra Donahue for the time and effort she put forth in designing the
- 3 logo for Indiana Freedom Trails and to commend her on her fine work.
- 4 SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of
- 5 Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to Anitra Donahue
- 6 and the Indiana Freedom Trails organization.
